TO THE TIMES ONLY.

Attorney-General Blair, of New Brunswick, Dangerously Hurt—Graves Robbed.

Negotiations Broken Off—Parkdale Joins Toronto—A Melancholy Death.

Special to THE TIMES.]

Ottawa, Oct. 29—Hon. Mr. Ross, treasurer of Ontario, and Hon. Mr. Shehyn, treasurer of Quebec, left for home on Saturday evening. The question as to whether simple interest or compound interest should be allowed by the Dominion Government upon the balance due to Ontario and Quebec as legatees of the old Province of Canada was the question they disagreed about, and consequently negotiations are off. Foster, the present Finance Minister, seeks to repudiate the understanding arrived at with Sir Leonard Tilley and the Provincial Governments charge him with endeavoring to break with them. At any rate Ross and Shehyn have left greatly disgusted with Foster's action, and the matter will now likely be fought out in the courts.

The Supreme Court finishes its business to-morrow, and will meet again on November 6th. Meantime a new judge will likely be appointed.

St. John, N. B., Oct. 29—On Saturday night Attorney-General Blair, while driving at a smart rate from his home to his office in Fredericton in the darkness, was run into by a team coming in an opposite direction. He was thrown from his carriage and seriously injured in the head. Serious results are feared.

C. H. Lugrin, secretary of the Agricultural Society, estimates the loss at 12 per cent. of hay raised in low lands, with a depreciation in value of much of the rest. The oat crop of the province would have been, had no frost or bad weather come, four million bushels. Sixty per cent. of oats suffered damage. Forty per cent. of buckwheat in the province is lost. It is believed an excellent crop of potatoes may yet be secured in good condition should the weather continue favorable.

SABBATH DESECRATION.

Extraordinary Conduct of a Woman on Yates Street.

At 6 o'clock on Sunday morning the crash of breaking glass was heard on Yates street, above Douglas street. The passers-by and lodgers in the Clarence Hotel witnessed a disgraceful scene, which does not often happen in our quiet city. A woman named Kitty, residing with another well-known character of ill-repute in a house in Trounce Alley, named May Williams, drove up to a house of easy virtue on the south side of Douglas street. She immediately jumped out of the hack and stepped on the verandah of the house. With a whip handle she broke every pane of glass on the lower floor, and then went around the house, smashing every window and using profane and abusive language. The hackman tried to stop the infuriated woman but was told that he would receive a taste of the whip if he interfered. After the work of demolition was completed the woman drove away to the house in Trounce Alley. The woman was arrested this afternoon and will be charged in the police court to-morrow morning with breaking property valued at $25.

MYSTERIOUS SHOOTING.

Fred Beaumont Shot While Hunting at Cowichan.

A mysterious shooting accident occurred at Cowichan on Saturday which is surrounded, up to last advices, with a veil of mystery. A dispatch to THE TIMES states that Fred Beaumont, son of Mr. William Beaumont of Maple Bay, was out hunting deer on a mountain near Maple Bay. When in the act of raising his rifle to shoot at a deer he was shot down himself. The bullet came from a side direction, glanced across the breast and lodged in the shoulder or muscles of the arm. It has not been extracted. The young man did not see anyone when he was out, and whether the shooting was done accidentally or maliciously remains a mystery. The party who did the shooting is not known. The wound is not believed to be fatal.

Hon. Edward Blake.

The Hon. E. Blake, accompanied by his two sons, arrived in the city on Saturday night. The distinguished gentleman was met at the wharf by Mayor Grant and several other gentlemen, who extended to him a cordial welcome to the city. On Sunday morning Mr. Blake attended Christ Church Cathedral, and in the afternoon visited the dry dock at Esquimalt, in company with Dr. Jones, T. J. Barnes and other friends. The weather was unfortunately cloudy and a veil of vapor hid the glories of the Olympians from view; nevertheless the visitors were charmed with the beauty of the city and the magnificence of the scenery. To-day Mr. Blake viewed the city and received numerous callers. A bouquet of roses, sent to his hotel on Sunday by Mr. Joshua Davies, reminded him very forcibly of the mildness and salubrity of our climate and the thoughtfulness of our citizens; and we know that he will carry away with him a pleasant recollection of his first visit to Victoria, which may possibly induce him to come again. Upon the invitation of Hon. Mr. Dunsmuir, Mr. Blake took a trip this afternoon on the E. & N. Railway as far as Cobble Hill, the president's private car being placed at his service. The car will be attached to the down train and the party will return to the city at 5:40 p. m. The Messrs. Blake, jr., and Dr. Jones were of the party.

The Hon. gentleman returns to Vancouver to-night, and will leave by to-morrow's express for the east, the business which brought him to British Columbia compelling his immediate return.

Cloth Sharpers at Work.

One of the itinerant cloth men, said to come from Manitoba, victimized Mr. G. D. Clarke and others of Alberni a few week's ago in the same manner as a Shawnigan farmer was imposed upon by one of the fraternity sharps some time before. Mr. Clarke purchased cloth to the extent of $45, paying $15 in cash, and his promissory note for $30, payable at at the Railway Express Office, Nanaimo, with the distinct understanding that tailors of the same firm would be along in a few days and make the cloth up into clothes free of charge, other than board. The tailors never came and the cloth still remains in bulk. Mr. G. D. Clarke has given notice that he will not be responsible for the note as it was obtained from him by misrepresentation, and is therefore void.

NOT YET RESIGNED.

Winnipeg, Oct. 29—The government has not yet resigned owing to the urgent representations of its friends that such an action would precipitate a grave state of affairs and leave the province in a hopeless condition. The constitutional course would be to resign immediately, but the government feels that the people are a unit with them in their course and that to resign would be to play into the hands of the Canadian Pacific Railway. The province continues terribly excited.

FROM VANCOUVER.

Mr. Blake's Arrival—Stealing to Get Whiskey—Mr. Moody, Etc.

From our own Correspondent.]

Vancouver, Oct. 27—The Hon. Edward Blake, one of Canada's most distinguished lawyers and ex-leader of the Liberal party of the Dominion, arrived in a special car from the east yesterday evening. He spent the night in the car, which had been side-tracked, attending to business which demanded his prompt attention, and to-day, in company with His Worship Mayor Oppenheimer and Messrs. J. C. McLagan and E. V. Bodwell, he drove around the city, which he regarded as beautiful for situation and marvellous for growth. The inclemency of the weather prevented them from driving around the Park as they intended, but on the Honorable Mr. Blake's return from Victoria on Tuesday next, if the day permits he proposes making the tour. He and his sons left for Victoria on the Yosemite this afternoon.

Yesterday Mr. Lang, clerk in the Cheapside at the corner of Cordova and Abbott streets, missed a coat which had been hanging outside of the door and forthwith informed his employer, Mr. W. D. Creighton. To-day another coat suddenly disappeared. The police were informed and a close watch was kept on the clothing which still hung outside. As evening drew on a third coat was snatched away and Mr. Lang's eagle eye caught sight of a pedestrian who appeared somewhat bulky on one side, so he pursued and caught him and beneath the captives wing he found the stolen coat. In the meantime the police had discovered the other stolen coats in a second-hand store and learned that they had been bought for 75 cents each from one Tom Grant, an old painter whose burning thirst had tempted him to steal to get whiskey. He will appear in the police court on Monday.

The great evangelist, D. L. Moody, arrived from Victoria on the Yosemite today and is staying at the Hotel Vancouver. He begins his campaign in this city to-morrow.

Oct. 28—This morning at 9:30, Mr. Moodp preached in the First Presbyterian church, to a crowded house, taking for his text Exodus, 25 chapter from the 1st to 8th verses inclusive. At 11 o'clock he preached in the Methodist Tabernacle and at 4 p. m. and at 7 p. m. he will hold forth in the same building after which he will deliver an address at the same place to men only.

To-day's Atlantic express was a very large one and contained a large number of passengers.

MISSIONARY TRADERS.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES:

SIR,—There has been at times, both recently and remote, letters complaining against the Methodist Missionary at Nass using for trade and speculation the time and ability which he ought to spend in his missionary work, and for which he has for many years received a good salary. Now, as a Methodist layman, and one who believes in real missionary work, I am ashamed to see our ministers in the public papers defending the above mentioned wrongs. A Rev. D. Jennings did recently in your columns. He said that the missionary secretary and district chairman knew what Mr. Green was doing, but I question if they did. They surely would not justify that missionary trading ostensibly for the Indians' benefit, and then pocketing his profits as the result of his speculation. Yet that is well known to be the case and can't be denied. But what becomes of Mr. G's mission while away so often to Victoria on his trading business every summer? and frequent trips to England, Ontario, and latterly all, Banff, thrown in. Does his mission allow of his being so much away from it? Then I question, and so do many more of your Methodist readers, the wisdom of maintaining so costly a mission. The Missionary Society granted $2,000 last year to help build a grand church there, but why go to such expense if the missionary does not use it for months together every year. But if the missionary makes much in trading, why couldn't he pay for it, especially as the trading is for the poor Indians benefit Now, Mr. Editor, you have many among your subscribers and readers who would like to have these abuses forever removed, and while a commission is either coming or is already in the province to deal with the government for their unfair treatment of our missionaries, would it not be in order for the said commission to bring their investigations to bear upon the doings of our Nass missionary. Mr. Jennings tries to justify his (Mr. G.'s) trading by showing how many more of another church did the same—but two wrongs don't make a right. We wish the commissioners referred to to understand that the Methodist people don't want to see this conduct winked at in the case of a minister—even in the case of one—any more than in Government officials. A COUNTRY METHODIST.

PUBLISHED EVERY AFTERNOON EXCEPT SUNDAY.

Victoria, Monday, October 29, 1888.

HON EDWARD BLAKE.

This distinguished son of Canada arrived in Victoria on Saturday evening, and was met at the wharf by Mayor GRANT and several citizens, who escorted him to his hotel. This is Mr. BLAKE's first visit to the coast, and as might be expected in the case of a gentleman of close observation and comprehensive judgment, he is more deeply than ever impressed with the magnitude of the Dominion and its enormous undeveloped resources. Mr. BLAKE, it will be remembered, some time ago, resigned the leadership of the Liberal party, on account of ill health, and made a lengthened visit to Europe, from which he returned last summer. Up to the time of his return to Canada the hope was entertained by the whole Liberal party that he would again resume his old place at the head of the party, a position which he had occupied with conspicuous ability for many years, but these expectations were doomed to disappointment, for Mr. BLAKE has signified his intention of withdrawing still longer from political life in order that he may devote himself to the practice of his profession.

As a lawyer Mr. BLAKE stands at the head of the bar of the Dominion, and both in law and politics is perhaps the most gifted of our public men. Entering public life in 1867, he lead the opposition against the SANDFIELD MCDONALD coalition government of Ontario, (the first after confederation) and in a few years succeeded in overthrowing that administration. He was the leader of the second government of his native province, and resigning when dual representation was prohibited, he took a leading position in the opposition ranks at Ottawa. In 1873, when Mr. MACKENZIE formed a government, Mr. BLAKE was Minister of Justice, and in 1878 when the protection wave submerged the Liberal party Mr. Blake suffered defeat. But he soon afterward returned to parliament, and upon the retirement of Hon. ALEX. MACKENZIE from the leadership he was unanimously chosen leader of the party, a position which he filled with extraordinary ability until about a year ago, when, as stated, he was compelled to retire. Mr. BLAKE's visit to British Columbia at the present time is in connection with a professional engagement, and with a view to familiarize himself with that portion of the railway in dispute between the government and the C. P. R. Co.

Both as a private citizen and a politician the Hon. EDWARD BLAKE bears a stainless reputation. As a debater he has no equal in the Dominion, and it is no flattery to say that there are few, if any, in the Imperial Parliament who are his superiors either as a reasoner or an orator. He has devoted many valuable years to the service of his native country, and every lover of Canada will welcome the time when he will be compelled—as he assuredly will be—by a resistless tide of public opinion to resume his place as the leader of his party, and at the head of the Government of the country.

IMPERIAL FEDERATION.

Lord ROSEBERRY, in his address to the Leeds Chamber, of Commerce while diving deep into the present foreign relations of of the Empire, took for his text the word "commerce," which he predicted would in the future exercise a more powerful and permanent pressure upon the conduct of public affairs. The beginning is already perceived. It is forcing the government to make departmental provision for the necessities of commercial men, who will have a stronger voice than heretofore in the conduct of foreign affairs. His Lordship observed that Colonial policy and foreign policy had a tendency to become one and the same. This was a subject congenial to the speaker, who was enabled to handle it from personal observation. The Colonies are now claiming a larger share than heretofore in the Imperial foreign policy—in Canada, India, Africa and in the Southern Seas. In Africa the Colonies jostle against other nations. India is creeping up to the borders of China and the French possessions in Tonquin, and here on the continent of America our interests clash with those of the United States. The Imperial interest in Europe, owing to insular position, grow few and more simple, and the foreign policy has shifted from Europe to the colonies. Lord ROSEBERRY's great passion is Imperial Federation, which many are inclined to look upon as a visionary scheme. Imperial federation can not be forced; it may be built up by degrees, and if the object is ever attained it will be by gradual approaches. The suggestion for a system of colonial defence and a postal union, is apparently a foundation on which the fabric of imperial unity can be erected. His Lordship recommended his hearers to take stock of the position, and asserted, with truth, that the relations between the mother country and the colonies can not remain in the present state. He asked how England would like to be shorn of all her colonies and narrowed down to Europe. "Well," said His Lordship, "if you wish to remain alone in the world with Ireland, you can do so."

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Montreal Gazette: The Peter Mitchell who joined the Salvation Army and sailed from Canada recently to convert the Hindoos is not the Hon. Peter Mitchell.

Premier Mercier, of Quebec, being interviewed at Ottawa a few days ago, declared that he was opposed to annexation with the United States and expressed his belief that the different branches of the Caucasian race in Canada could live harmoniously together and eventually form a united people.

In his clever and interesting letters from Japan, Mr. Henry Norman, speaking of the press censorship which prevails in the island, says that it is the custom with newspaper proprietors to engage dummy editors who, for a trifling compensation, undergo the penalty of imprisonment which frequently follows suppression. Some such arrangement might be made in British Columbia where libel suits are becoming common.

Ottawa Free Press: All this bluster will avail nothing so long as the British Columbia delegation in parliament continue to vote blindly with the Tory party. Sir John Macdonald cares very little whether he enjoys the confidence of the people of Victoria or not so long as he holds the votes of the city's representatives in his pocket. And if British Columbia was not the only Tory province in the Dominion its people would be denounced by the government's subsidized organs as rebels, traitors and annexationists for daring to protest any act of the "loyal" Dewdney-Foster government.

Mr. Simeon Jones, of St. John, N. B., Dominion Trade Commissioner to the Argentine Confederation, has presented his report to the Minister of Finance. The report will be presented to Parliament in the ordinary way. He considers that steamers of 1,200 or 1,400 tons would be the best to employ in the South American trade. With the heavy engines now in use such vessels could make the trip without consuming such immense quantities of fuel as the larger steamers. If the Government grant a subsidy for steamers of this kind they will have to permit them to take return cargoes, either to ports in the United States or England, as the steamers would not be able to obtain return freights for Canada. The Dominion wants nothing that the Argentine Republic produces, and very little that is grown in Brazil. Canadian coal and lumber would find a ready market in South America.

CITY AND PROVINCE.

—British Columbia will likely be divided into two inland revenue divisions at an early date.

—There are a number of varieties of corns. Holloway's Corn Cure will remove any of them. Call on your druggist and get a bottle at once.

—Trade between Canada and France is increasing so rapidly that the fleet of three steamers will be augmented by two others next season.

—Dr. Bull's Syrup is getting relief for the little folks. Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator is a pleasant and sure cure. If you love your child why do you let it suffer when a remedy is so near at hand.*

—Hon. E. Stanley, of the Grenadier Guards, eldest son of the Governor-General, is to marry Lady Alice Montague, daughter of the Duke of Manchester, shortly.

—Excellent reasons exist why Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil should be used by persons troubled with affections of the throat or lungs, sores upon the skin, rheumatic pain, corns, bunions, or external injuries. The reasons are, that it is speedy, pure and unobjectionable, whether taken internally or applied outwardly.

—Influential politicians are representing the claims of the maritime provinces in the selection of a judge to replace the late Judge Henry in the supreme court.

—A dilapidated physique may be built up and fortified against disease by that incomparable promoter of digestion and fertilizer of the blood, Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure. It counteracts billiousness and kidney complaints, overcomes bodily ailments special with the feebler sex, causes the bowels to act like clockwork, and is a safeguard against malaria and rheumatism.

—The Canadian Copyright Association will shortly ask the Minister of Agriculture to enact legislation to prevent Canada becoming a slaughter market for English and American books to the detriment of Canadian publishers.

—Miss Mary Campbell, Elm, writes: "After taking four bottles of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure, I feel as if I were a new person. I had been troubled with dyspepsia for a number of years, and tried many remedies, but of no avail, until I used this celebrated Dyspeptic Cure." For all impurities of the blood, sick headache, liver and kidney complaints, costiveness, etc., it is the best medicine known.

—Messrs. Northrop & Lyman are the proprietors of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, which is now being sold in immense quantities throughout the Dominion. It is welcomed by the suffering invalid everywhere with emotions of delight, because it banishes pain and gives instant relief. This valuable specific for almost "every ill that flesh is heir to," is valued by the sufferer as more precious than gold. It is the elixir of life to many a wasted frame. If you have not purchased a bottle, do so at once, and keep it ready for an emergency. Its cheapness, 25 cents per bottle, places it within the reach of all. To the farmer it is indispensable, and it should be in every house. *

OUR OTTAWA LETTER.

The Chapleau Banquet Not an Unqualified Success--Sir John on Retaliation.

The Address Mania and the Governor-General--The Position of Victoria Members.

From Our Own Correspondent.]

Ottawa, Oct. 19—I had the pleasure of being one of those honored with an invitation to the Chapleau banquet, held here last evening, and I attended the same. It was called a "Workingman's Feast" to the Secretary of State, on account of the part he took in electing Mr. Lepine, M. P., for Montreal East, a few weeks ago. But as a matter of fact, workingmen, beyond a few employees of the Government and Printing Bureau hands, were not there. A fund of $1,000 or more was subscribed by patriots to the Tory cause, tickets were distributed free, although they were supposed to cost $1 each, and in this way nearly 400 persons—including over 100 from Montreal—were got to attend. All the Ministers with the exception of Sir Adolphe Caron and Hon. Mr. Bowell were in attendance. Mr. Chapleau, who is undoubtedly an orator, was wholly out of form, having his speech written out and in readiness for the press. His utterances were a mass of contradictions, first urging workingmen to combine and enforce their rights, and afterwards telling them that strikes were their ruin. He complained that the local legislature has usurped the functions of the Federal Parliament in passing acts regulating factory labor, forgetting evidently that the Premier of the Dominion, Sir John MacDonald, refused the members for Cornwall the permission to get a second reading to a factory bill of which he had given notice, and which were on the journals of the House of Commons for some five years. In this case and in all others Sir John MacDonald is controlled by heads of combines. When he is pressed by the representatives of any class of men who have grievances, his one great endeavor of escape from complying with their wishes is to appoint a commission of enquiry. This in many cases means from two to five years delay, and in some cases the commission fails to report.

SIR JOHN TALKS.

When Sir John spoke at the banquet he took occasion to refer to our relations with the United States. In his opinion when the presidential election was over the two great houses in the United States would ratify the treaty which has just been rejected, or rather a treaty based on similar lines. It was a fair and honorable treaty; but whether the Americans would do so or not the course of the Canadian government was clear, and that was to say, "We have made a fair treaty, ratified it by parliament, and we are willing to carry our intercourse with our neighbors on reasonable lines under that treaty. If you decline to accept it we cannot help it, the responsibility rests upon your shoulders, and the only consequence will be we must rest upon the treaty of 1818." That was to be the course of the Canadian government, but he had no fear that there would be any difficulty with the United States people. War was out of the question. If there were any difficulties as to the interpretation the tribunal selected by both countries could settle them.

THE ADDRESS GRIEVANCES.

Lord and Lady Stanley, of Preston, returned to-day from Niagara Falls, where they were spending a few days, no doubt resulting from the inflictions they rather good naturedly bore here at the hands of the address mania party. This thing has got to be such a perfect nuisance around the capital that the presentation of addresses are now being left to the smaller organizations in the city. The Sons of England, a rather new institution in the city, but one painfully loyal, took occasion not only to express this in their lengthy address to His Excellency, but also to regret the elements of rancor and discord which were beginning to be sown throughout Canada. Lord Stanley very properly administered them such a rebuke as will be a warning to future growlers, who imagine that true loyalty consists of sycophancy and toadyism to the powers that be. Dr. Johnson had a better definition of the word. Speaking of the Governor-General I might say that Lord Stanley is not likely to be used as a pure figurehead in the country—although unquestionably he is little else. What I mean is this. The government has been in the habit of giving out orders-in-council, passed by the cabinet, to the hired press, whose representatives stand at the door until the sitting is over prior to their being signed by His Excellency. This was too much for Lord Lansdowne and on two occasions he refused to sign important orders-in-council—appearing in the government press before they were submitted to him. On the condition that the practice was to be stopped he agreed to give his autograph to the documents in question.

NOT EXACTLY SO.

The announcement in some of the government newspapers that the government intends to concede the transhipment-for-catchers privilege to American fishermen has again awakened the discussion on the retaliation question, more particularly as simultaneously with this comes a report that President Cleveland will address Congress within a few days on the subject. I have learned in Ministerial circles that no such conclusion has been arrived at as yet, and that while the government have no intentions of making any such concession in the meantime what the outcome of the matter may be they cannot tell. Sir John's remarks elsewhere in my letter also gives a contradiction to the rumor.

DOWN ON VICTORIA.

Among the last numbers of the TIMES which have arrived here, I notice an article on the Dominion Government's action in removing offices from Victoria to Vancouver and also in endeavoring to rob the city of the coast defences, etc. In other provinces the representatives of the people in the Parliament of the country would not tolerate this, but British Columbia M. P's are—well—too amiable, let me say, to quarrel with the Government unless, indeed, one of them was after some of the positions himself. Since the days of Mr. Bunster I have not seen a representative in the Commons from your parts who would say one word in the House in the interests of the Province if the "old chieftain," as they are fond of calling him, asked them not to do so. I don't care to say that Bunster was a model statesman, but he would talk "Chinese" even if he were out of order, in defiance of the Premier. On the other hand, Shakespeare's motions and resolutions on the Chinese, or any other question, were dropped or withdrawn at the pleasure of Sir John. Government peelers and office seekers have no right in Parliament. But if British Columbia insists on sending them, the Province must suffer. SLAPDOWN.

500 MEN FACE TO FACE.

A Collision Narrowly Averted at Winnipeg.

It appears that the trouble at Winnipeg on Monday was much more serious than anything which has been published would indicate. At one time 500 men were face to face ready to attack each other and a collision and possibly bloodshed was only averted by accident. When the C. P. R. heard in the forenoon that it was the intention of the citizens to force a crossing by the Northern Pacific, vigorous steps were taken to checkmate it. The men in the C. P. R. shops were notified that they would have to protect the company's property, and by this means a force of between 200 and 300 were raised and taken out to the scene of the disturbance. The citizens' force of about three hundred, among whom were many of the most prominent merchants and lawyers, went out on a special train about three o'clock, p. m. The outlook was decidedly ominous. The two or three hundred citizens were standing round on the dump awaiting the arrival of the track-laying party before making an assault on the enemy's camp, while as large a force sat on the cars on the Canadian Pacific line ready to repel such an attack. It was no child's play. Mr. Lemcock was despatched to town, at this juncture, post haste on a special engine to bring out the military. Col. Villiers, in response to the requisition, ordered the Mounted School of Infantry to proceed at once to the crossing while messengers were despatched to the commanding officers at the Winnipeg Field Battery, the Cavalry, the Ninetieth Batt. and the Ninety-first Batt. to hold themselves in readiness. The Mounted Infantry were ready to start, the ambulance corps and everything being ready, when word came that their presence would not be required on that day.

What averted a collision, and probably bloodshed, was the slowness of the track-laying gang. When the provincial forces reached the ground they found nearly a mile of track still to be laid; they waited until 6 o'clock and the track was still half a mile off. They could do nothing unless the track was completed, as the tackle with which they intended to lift the dead engine could only be utilised with the help of a locomotive, and it was evident that it would not be completed until long after dark. The Canadian Pacific about half-past five, says the Free Press, began attaching hose to their "live" engine for the purpose of throwing scalding steam on the provincial force. The employment of this barbarous weapon of warfare was denounced as dastardly and excited much wrath and hostility. But when darkness fell the track was still several hundred yards down the dump, and there was nothing to do but to beat a retreat and leave the foe in possession of the field. The construction train bore them to the regular train and at a quarter to seven they were again in the city. It was a pretty angry crowd that alighted on the Water street platform. They were not at all pleased at having been taken out there before there was any use for their services. As already known the citizen force stole a march on Wednesday night and effected a crossing.

An Explanation.

What is this "nervous trouble" with which so many seem now to be afflicted? If you will remember a few years ago the word Malaria was comparatively unknown—to day it is as common as any word in the English language, yet this word covers only the meaning of another word used by our forefathers in times past. So it is with nervous diseases, as they and Malaria are intended to cover what our grandfathers called Biliousness, and all are caused by troubles that arise from a diseased condition of the Liver which in performing its functions finding it cannot dispose of the bile through the ordinary channel is compelled to pass it off through the system, causing nervous troubles, Malaria, Bilious Fever, etc. You who are suffering can well appreciate a cure. We recommend Green's August Flower. Its' cures are marvelous. *

CITY AND PROVINCE.

—Ice Cream at Steitz's.

—See ad. of grand piano for sale. 1w

—The mud-scratcher is at work on Government street.

—Remember the masquerade on Thursday evening at Oliver's Dancing Academy.

—J. W. Smith, of the Bijou Theatre, Seattle, has failed. Assets, $20; liabilities $23,000.

—Fresh Oysters at the New England Bakery. Delivered to all parts of the city. Telephone No. 161.

—J. C. Blackett has completed the construction of trestles and bridges on the contract near the Union Colliery mines.

—The steward of the Royal Hospital acknowledges the receipt of a parcel of books and a roast of venison from A. J. Langley.

—The bark Kaisow, which arrived today, 68 days from Bankok, brought 1200 tons of paddy (rice) for the Rice Mills of Hall, Ross & Co.

—There are now, says the Columbian, 86 patients cooped up in the provincial insane asylum. The institution should be at least double in size.

—Mr. H. L. DeBeck has been appointed leader of the united choir at New Westminster, which is to assist Mr. Moody. Miss DeBeck is to be the organist.

—The Hon. John Robson, when in Westminster, stated that a site had been selected for a new court house, but did not divulge the locality, about which there is great curiosity.

—To imitate the TIMES appears to be our contemporaries highest ambition. Those columns, a la "Town Major" are very sad things indeed. The effort to be funny is painful.

—In reply to the evening echo we need only say that a gentleman connected with that office sticks his nose in a number of hovels on Cormorant street at least once a month—when rents become due.

—For the largest and best assortment of FURNITURE, CARPETS, CROCKERY, GLASSWARE, LAMPS, &c., go to J. SEHL, Government Street, where you are sure to get suited in style, quality and lowest prices.

PERSONAL.

Items Telling of Movements of Well Known Persons.

Lord Ennismore is at the Driard.

W H Poole, who is to build Mr Dunsmuir's new tug, is at the Driard.

H B Shadwell, dry goods merchant, New Westminster, is at the Clarence.

George Babbage, returned from England last night after an absence of 13 months.

J E Church, of Richardson & Church, returned from a business trip to Montreal on Saturday. On the way out he encountered three snow storms.

Mr Isaac Oppenheimer is in the city to-day. He says Vancouver is forging ahead beyond the wildest dream of the most sanguine real estate agent of that remarkable city. Mr Oppenheimer returns to-morrow.

Prisoners Escaped.

Two prisoners escaped from the Provincial gaol this afternoon. The men were under arrest on a charge of desertion from the bark Narcosa. The men were handcuffed and were to enter the Esquimalt omnibus; when they reached the buss they ran away. Two other seamen also attempted to run away and ran against a tree, on account of being hand-cuffed. One took one side of the tree and the other the other side. They were caught, but the first two are away and will most likely escape. The police fired two shots after the first two but they kept on. Four men followed the prisoners but returned without them.

Comedy Company.

The Rochester Comedy Company will appear this evening at the Victoria Theatre in the great farcial comedy Widow O'Brien. To-morrow evening "Senior and Junior" will be the attraction. The company, comprising twelve well-known ladies and gentlemen are highly praised by the American press and will receive the patronage they so justly deserve.

Arrived!

Bass XXXX Ale (Lamb's Wool) at the Occidental Hotel bar.

Postponed.

The sale of furniture advertised for the 30th Oct., by Mr. George Byrnes, has been postponed until the 6th of Nov.

C. P. R. Earnings.

The Canadian Pacific Railway company's earnings for the week ending Oct. 21st were $286,000; for the same week last year, $277,000. This does not include earnings on the Southeastern and International railways.

Large Deer Shot.

Probably the largest deer killed this season was brought to town to-day and was exhibited at the Vancouver house on Yates street. The animal is a magnificent specimen and was shot in the neighborhood of Sooke by an Indian named Joe, and pouched weighs 174 pounds.

A New Constitution.

There will be a meeting of the members of the Young Men's Christian Association to-night at 7 o'clock to consider the adoption of a new constitution. The one in use at present does not at all meet the needs of the growing organization. It is desired that all the active members will be present.

$10,000 Damages.

J. F. McIntyre, special correspondent of the Post Intelligencer for Port Townsend, filed a petition against the Seattle Daily Times for $10,000, for defamation of character, etc. The trouble grows out of an article in Thursday's Times relative to the prize fight that recently occurred at Port Discovery, the Times implicating Mr. McIntyre as stakeholder.

Railway Locating.

Mr. C. E. Perry, C. E., arrived from the Sound Saturday night. Mr. Perry has been locating from the boundary south for the Seattle, Lake Shore & Eastern, completed work for the season a few days ago. During the summer his party has run 140 miles of railway line, locating forty miles. The country is described as excellent and all available for settlement and is now rapidly filling up.

Oriental Hotel.

The Oriental Hotel is fast approaching completion, the finishing touches are being given to the painting and decoration. It was hoped that the building would have been ready some weeks ago, but the difficulty experienced in obtaining workmen, owing to the large building operations this season, caused serious delay. The hotel will be opened in about three weeks from date. The Oriental promises to be one of the most commodious and best fitted hostleries in the city.

Row Amongst Sailors.

A row occurred on Union wharf, Port Townsend, on Friday afternoon between union sailors and three non-union men who were to take passage on the Olympian for Victoria. It appears that three non-union men and one union sailor had signed to ship on the bark Amelia, which was lying in Royal Roads, bound for San Francisco. The non-union sailors were met at the wharf by union men who objected to their shipping. Words brought on a quarrel, which resulted in a fight. The fight was precipitated by the non-union men boarding the Olympian, which was lying at the wharf.

Prospectors Return.

W. M. Halpenny and John Macleod returned Sunday from a trip to the San Juan mountains, returning by Leach river. During the prospect several good ledges were seen but the mineral which Mr. Halpenny was looking for was not dropped on to. The usually wet weather interfered very much with the search. From what they saw, however, they are sure the country is rich in quartz and that there will be big mining activity there yet. Weeks & Sons, who have taken up land at the Jordan Meadows, at the head of the Jordan river, and 11 miles on this side of the San Juan, are making very substantial improvements.

Out of Luck.

John Bray, an old-timer of this province, is still staying in London Eng. Things have not prospered much with Mr. Bray since the time he lost his valise by handing it to a stranger on the New York wharf with the injunction "to take care of it, as it contained all his money!" After this experience, he managed to get his pocket picked in open day while in London; and later on, going home one night, he was tripped up by two men and deprived of the cash balance he had till then been able to preserve from his predatory fellow men. We think it would be better for Mr. Bray to come back to British Columbia in care of some reliable old woman.

Good Prospects.

Messrs. D. F. Fee jr. and Wm. Stevenson returned from the Gordon hydraulic mine at Leach river on Saturday, and are very sanguine of the success of their undertaking out there. The men at work have finished laying 550 feet of 9 inch iron pipe, 2000 feet of flume and 400 feet of ditch have been constructed and with good weather the work will be completed and washing commence within two weeks. Only 400 feet of flume and trestle remains to be finished. The claim held by the company extends for a mile along the river and without doubt contains a great deal of gold. Colors can be found in any part of it. Water is to be taken from the old government dam which has been fixed up and is now as good as new.

Emma Abbott Coming.

The approaching visit of the favorite and talented little songstress Emma Abbott will prove one of great interest to our citizens who have seen and heard this sterling little woman in some of her best impersonations, and who can, therefore, form an estimate of the musical treat in store for them and the real enjoyment to be found in the Abbott company's smooth and artistic representations of the most brilliant works extant. Emma Abbott's two season's of travel since her last visit to Victoria have been simply triumphal marches through the east and south, and she is accredited with having the most complete and evenly balanced opera company ever organized, with the view of presenting grand opera in England. She will be heard in the following brilliant and interesting series of opera: Monday, November 5th, "Il Trovatore;" Tuesday, "Rose of Castile;" Wednesday, "Bohemian Girl;" Thursday, "Faust." The sale of season tickets will begin to-morrow at M. W. Waitt & Co.'s store. The sale of tickets for any performance will begin on Wednesday. Season tickets, $8. Single night, $2. Admission, $1.50. Gallery, 50 cents.

OUR TOWN MAJOR.

The New Bastile—A True Critic—The Reason Why.

Have you seen the lithograph of the Bastile, admired for its commanding position, its conveniences and the labyrinth of its well laid off interior, the throne (?) of the judges and its massive (?) Norman towers? Faith, these latter put the Major in mind of pillasters, and slim ones at that—seem as if they went out for a ramble and got lost. As for the labyrinth of the interior it is very much like the maze at Hampton Court and every bit as intricate. Yes, "the pile" has "a commanding position." Oh, its a grand structure throughout, and well worthy of the genius that conceived it and the boodling government that built it.

The true critic, says many writers, is a born hero, descending in a direct line from the immortal Gods, from whom the world received so much benefit that they placed their origin in the dim past of the heathen mythology. In our matter-of-fact days, especially here in the good city of Victoria, we have some of their descendants, who for the good of the public should, as soon as their criticism was completed, go and hang themselves. A law should be passed that all those laying claim to being a true critic, like the fellow of the Colonist, should not be received till he had first performed the operation. In ancient times, history tells us of an army that was put to flight in panic and terror by the braying of a Jackass, from which we may conjecture that the great awe and reverence paid the critics here must have been derived from that source. The Victoria sample is something like a cur at a feast, whose thoughts are wholly set upon what the guests will throw away, and consequently will bark loudest when the pickings are plenty, and snarl most when the bones are few. The Colonist critic, in his dissertation on the new court house has excelled himself, even more so than he did with Mrs. Samson the other day. The pickings are good, consequently he barks loudly.

Police Constable Thomas, No. 5, step to the front. Correct. You are a brave and level headed man. Why? Listen and I will tell you several whys. You supported the senator from Squimalt at the last election, your name is still on the Squimalt voting roll. He made you a police officer, and as he is an observing man he will sing your praises when there is a chance to make you Seargent of police. D'ye twig? THE TOWN MAJOR.

POLICE COURT.

(Before Hon. A. N. Richards, Q.C.)

Court opened at 11.25 this morning and proceeded to take up the cases.

William, a west coast Indian, charged with assaulting Ah Hungs, a Chinaman. Mr. J. E. Gardner, interpreter to the Chinaman. The clerk of the court wrote down the evidence which was interpreted to the Indian by officer Lindsay. The native was sentenced to pay a fine of $10 and $3.50 costs or one month.

Riley Roberts and David Craigie, on remand for stealing 130 grain sacks from Richard Bray.

Supt. Sheppard said the father of Robbins would send the boy to Oregon to-morrow morning. The Supt. said he would send a constable on the steamer with him. Robbins was remanded for three days and advised to leave the country.

Cragie was also remanded for three days.

Union Meeting.

The union-meeting held in the Victoria Theatre last evening was largely attended. Long before the services commenced the building was crowded to its fullest capacity and many were outside to gain admission. The meeting was led by Mr. Studd, the young English gentleman who accompanies Mr. Moody as assistant. He was assisted by the Rev. Dr. Reid, Rev. D. Fraser and the Rev. Mr. Rugg. Mr. Studd's clear and impassioned address on the story of the "rich man and Lazarus" was closely listened to by the vast audience and a deep impression was made on all. Mr. Studd is not eloquent but he speaks with an earnest simplicity that reaches the hearts of his hearers. The singing was led by the Union Choir. Several remained to the after service.

In the afternoon at 4 o'clock a mixed service was held in the First Presbyterian church led by Mr. Winslow. The attendance was good and there was a very good meeting.

Salvation Army Appeal.

The officers of the Salvation Army, says the Nanaimo Free Press, while working in their own way for the salvation of the masses are not without a practical and mundane turn of mind. A few evenings ago the captain let her large congregation know that they were in need of a wash tub and wash board. The next night the appeal was practically answered, for a large wash tub was passed through an open window, and delivered to the lassies. Constable O'Connell objected to the giver's charitable action being under a "wash tub" slipped out and took the confused young gentlemen into the hall, and introduced them to the lassies and the audience. The lassies cheerfully accepted the practical present. The next morning a boy whose christian name is "John" took a wash board around and the bill was complete.

Provincial Police Court.

(Before H. Ward, Esq., J. P.)

John Nelson was brought up on remand for breaking into the house of John Dyer, East Saanich Road, on 19th inst., and stealing therefrom a silver plated watch and a quart of whiskey, etc.

A. A. Aaronson, was examined and stated that the prisoner pawned a silver watch in his store on the 19th instant for $2. Two days afterwards City Police Officer Mills brought the prisoner to the store whom witness identified. The prisoner was committee for trial on the charge, and was afterwards charged with entering the house of Isaac Hurd on the same date stealing therefrom a pair of blankets, and some gold plated jewellery, and was remanded till Wednesday on this latter charge.

The Concert To-Night.

The concert in Philharmonic hall this evening is one of the most important musical events of the season. A glance at the programme shows it to include the very best musical talent of the city and if a rare and cultured performance is not given it will be useless to attempt to get up a first class concert in Victoria. The programme includes, we believe, almost all the leading amateurs of the city, viz: Mrs Harris, Miss O'Neill, Mrs Turnbull, Lieut. Col Prior, J G Brown, Mr Robson, W D Kinnaird and Profs Strauss and Sharpe. The entertainment begins promptly at eight o'clock.

What Mr. Blake Declined.

Mr. Blake has during his public career perhaps declined more "honors" and positions than any other public man in Canada. He was offered and refused knighthood along with his then leader Alex. Mackenzie. When the Supreme Court of Canada was organized he declined the Chief Justiceship, and an almost equal honorable position in the Ontario judiciary was also refused subsequently. There is no other man in Canada who has the same record.

Squarely for Annexation.

An Ottawa dispatch says: Solon Smith, ex-member of the Dominion Parliament, in a speech last night came out squarely for annexation as Canada's only salvation. "As regards the terms," he said, "the American people should take us just as we are and allow us to retain our local codes, courts and school systems." Another dispatch says: Sol. White, ex-M. P. P. for North Essex, the prominent Conservative who recently declared for annexation, is here and is not ashamed to declare his intention to stand by his colors.
